Key Learning this term...

How am I writing Summer 2 (the final) newsletter of the year?! It does seem that long since we started this school year, and now were are coming to an end.

Literacy: Focus is on the text Sky Hawk, where we will be taking inspiration for our writing

Maths: We will continue to explore shape and space. We will also be looking at .

Science: Living things and their habitats

History: We will look at Europe, the history of the EU and Brexit.

DT: Cooking and Nutrition: developing a recipe .

RE: Our area of focus this term is : "What matters most to Humanists and Christians?"

PE: Athletics

RSE: Growing up

We will be supporting the children with their transition this term and our PSHE work will provide them with an opportunity to talk about this openly. We will explore the decades in History and build upon their chronological knowledge.

We cannot wait to perfect our school play this term and already this week we have joined together for a rehearsal and started to learn the songs! We have loved teaching your children this year and we will be enjoying every moment with them in their final term in Class 4.
